Walla Walla High School

2017-2018

800 Abbott Road
Walla Walla, WA 99362
Student Population: 1,700

Everyone has heard the saying "Speak of the Devil, and the Devil shall appear." But what if, instead of just one devil appearing, a whole school of devils spoke up? Each graduating class out of Walla Walla High School has something important to say, and we think that it's time to start listening – now.

SPEAK OF

THE DEVIL

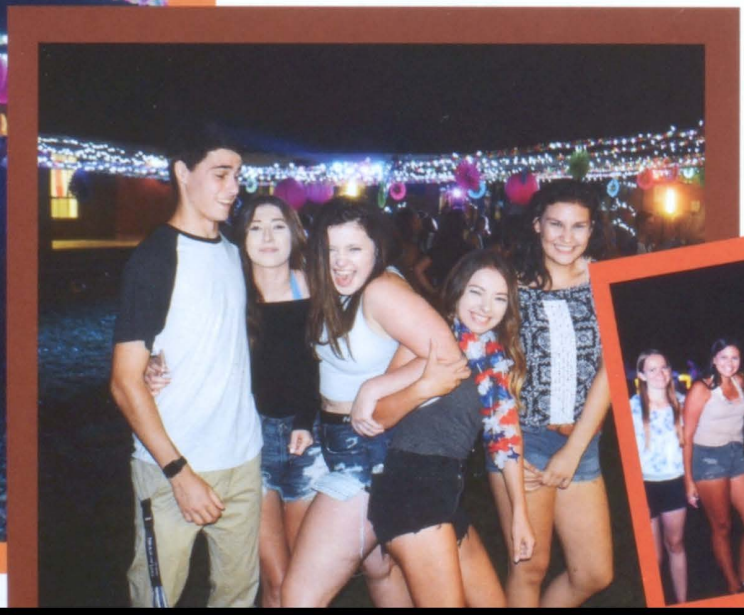
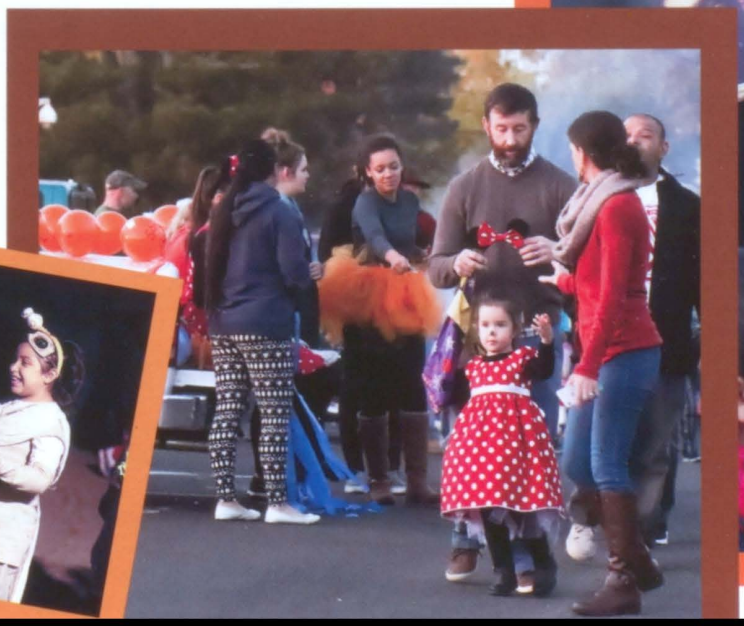
Luau

The annual Luau is a get-together party, held the first weekend back from summer break. The Luau gives everyone a chance to catch up with their friends, meet new people, have a good time, and get ready to go back into the school year. This year's Luau was a huge success,with every attendee saying they had an amazing night of fun, laughter and dancing. There were snow cones, tons of Hawaiian apparel, and everything was decorated to the respective theme.



Trunk or Treat

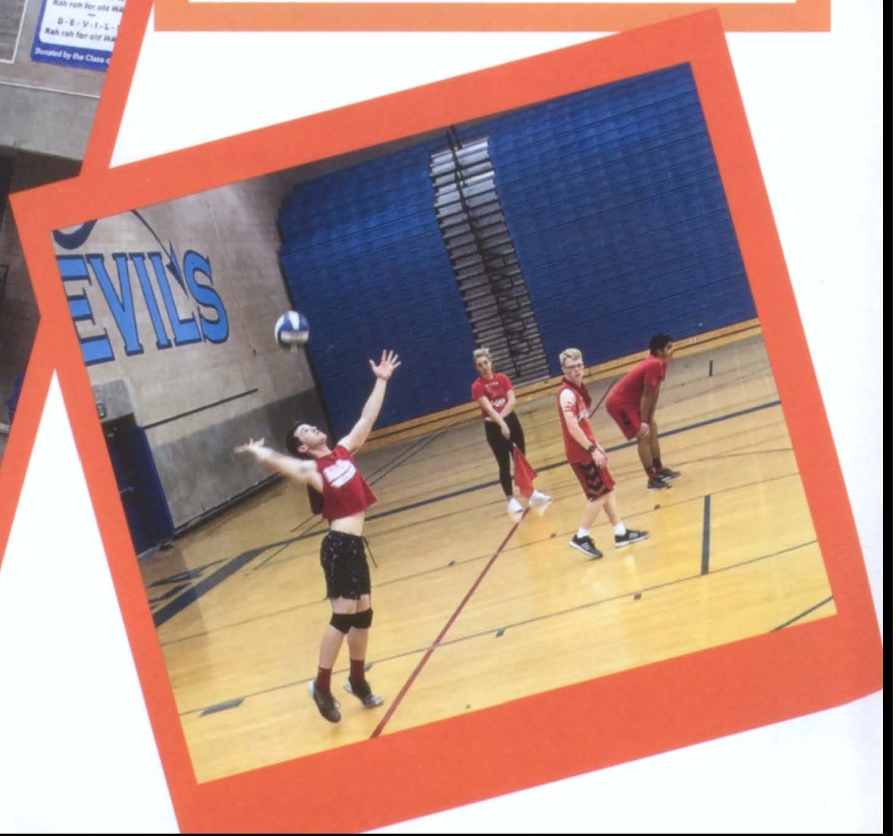
Trunk or Treat, an annual Halloween event hosted by Key Club, encourages every club at Wa-Hi to decorate their own car to a unique and recognizable theme. Various trick-or-treaters act as judges, and they decide which club has the best-decorated vehicle. This year, Wa-Hi's Future Business Leaders of America club won the grand-prize pizza party with their Mario Kart theme! This event is open to everyone in the community to come and enjoy free candy, a Haunted Barn put on by Wa-Hi's FFA and a great time with family and friends.



Seniors

Buff Puff

This year's Buff Puff took place on the 25th of September. Both teams played with passion and drive for the victory. However, the Seniors took the win with an extremely close third game after losing to the Juniors in the second set.



Juniors

Seniors

Powder Puff

The Powder Puff game took place at Borleske Stadium on the 27th of September. Both teams battled valiantly and displayed great perseverance. The Seniors, however, took the win yet again with a 21-7 victory.

HOMECOMING

This year's Homecoming Game took place on Friday, September 29th. The student section was cheering their Wa-Hi football team on, giving them all the support that they needed. They all showed their spirit by wearing blue and white to the game. Fatima Venegas and Edwin Romero were voted Homecoming King and Queen.

Mark Bogley — Dreyfus

Are you planning on continuing acting in the future?
"Yes, actually I'm hoping to continue through college and either minor or major in theater. Acting is a huge part of my life. It's a lot of fun and I hope to keep it in my life."

What was your favorite part of the play? "My favorite part was playing the bad guy. I've never really had a chance to try to do that before. It was fun trying to justify all of Dreyfus's evilness and just exploring his hate."

Are you sad that it's over?
"I'm a little bit sad because it was really fun and amazing working with everyone, but it also feels like I'm not as stressed anymore. So it's like 75% sadness and 25% happiness that it's over."

Skylar Ruiz — Jarvis

What was your favorite part of the play?
"Honestly, my favorite part of the play was being able to dress like a woman and act like a drag queen because it was really fun and definitely different."

How big a part of your life was the play?
"A huge part. It was what I was focused on pretty much completely."

Are you sad that it's over?
"I mean, I'm kinda bummed that it's over because it WAS a big part of my life but I'm also glad that I have more free time. The play took a lot of time and was a bit stressful. But overall I'm pretty relieved but also sad at the same time."

Mckenzie Bayne — Margot

How long have you been acting?
"I think that when I started acting was around third grade."

Who was your favorite person to work with?
"My favorite person was Ms. Glaeser. She had really good ideas and she managed to pull everything together really well."

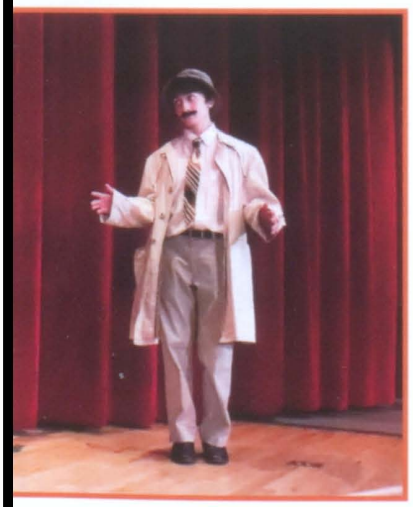
What was the hardest scene for you to do?
"The chalkboard scene. And crying on will was extremely hard, honestly."

Sydney Weston — Tournier

Are you planning on continuing acting in the future?
"Yes, I grew up acting my whole life. Sometimes it feels like one of the only things I know how to do well."

Who was your favorite person to work with?
"Simon was my favorite person to work with. He was really sweet and funny and with him being naturally clumsy and awkward he was definitely the best Clouseau."

What was the hardest scene for you to do?
"My death scene was the hardest thing for me to do because everyone was laughing which made me want to laugh even though I knew I couldn't."



Simon Close — Clouseau

How long have you been acting?
"I've been officially acting since sixth grade, but in elementary I had to be parts of plays and skits so those don't count."

How big a part of your life was the play?
"It seemed like the play was more or less my whole life. It kinda feels like I don't know how to live without the play anymore."

What was the hardest scene for you to do?
"The tango scene was really hard. I thought for sure I was going to fall or something. Another one was when I had to do the monologue. I felt like I was going to forget everything and ruin the play. And the third was when I had to choke. I can't just choke at will."

What's the biggest adjustment been?

People are very nice, and teachers care about you more and try to help you.

What do you like most about Walla Walla?

I like how it looks; it's very similar to my town so I like it a lot.

What do you miss the most?

The food. I mean, I like the food. I love Taco Bell -- we don't have Taco Bell in Germany but I miss my grandma's home-cooked stuff.

Alice Valmadre

What's the biggest adjustment been?

Not having my family and friends near and having to start from zero..But I'm doing good. At the beginning it's always hard.

What's your favorite place to eat?

I've only been to Maple Counter, but it was awesome.

What's the craziest thing you've seen at Wa-Hi?

The assembly was really crazy. We don't have anything like that in Italy. I like how many things you can do, like with sports and drama. That's a lot different.

Elin Paulsrud

How long are you here for?

I'm here for the school year, so I go back in June.

What do you like most about Walla Walla?

All the people are really nice and friendly they've been very welcoming.

How are schools different compared to where you're from?

In Norway we have one class we stay in and the teachers move around to us.

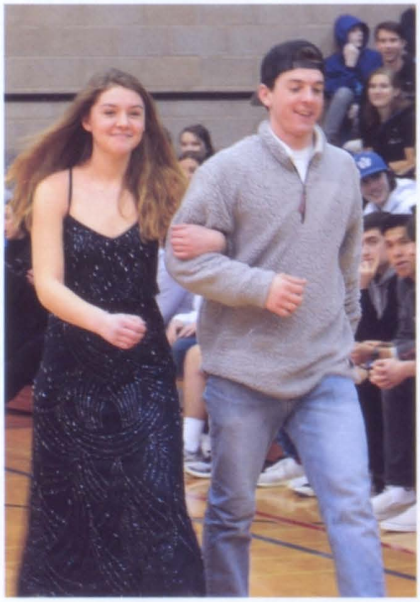
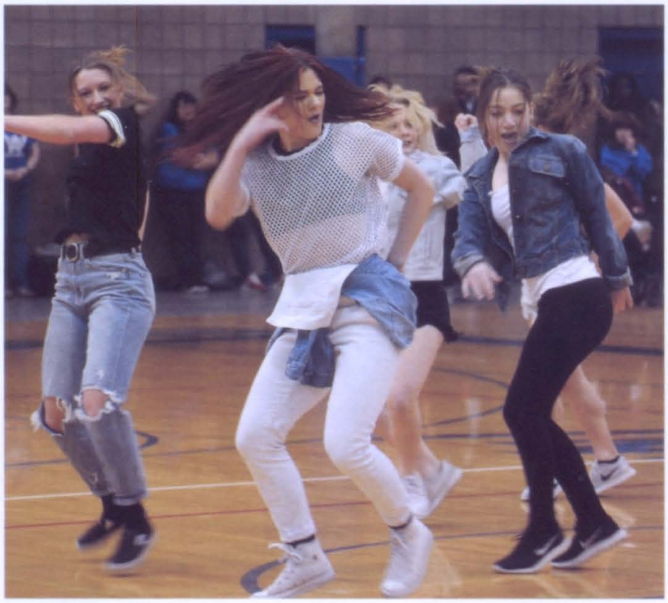
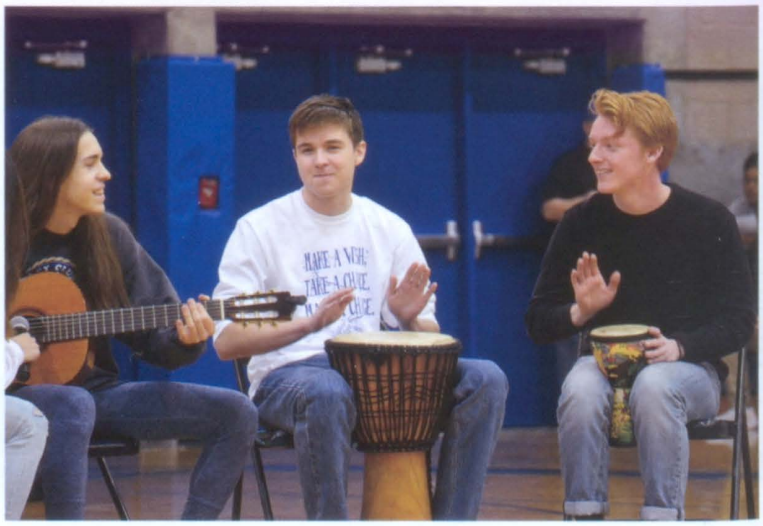
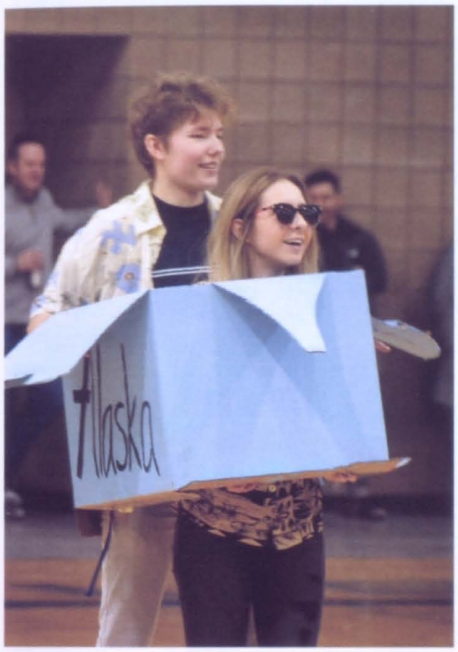
Winter Wish Week









Winter wish week is a fun annual tradition, where students make wishes for the well-being of themselves or other students that are then granted by the ASB officers. During 6th period, ASB went to classes to fulfill the wishes they choose to grant. The assembly is a very lively event, with student and teacher competitions for prizes, including a lip sync battle between Mr. Shaw and Mr. Postlewait and a student vs. teacher basketball game. Wishes were granted for Wa-Hi gear, baked potatoes, yearbooks and prom tickets.

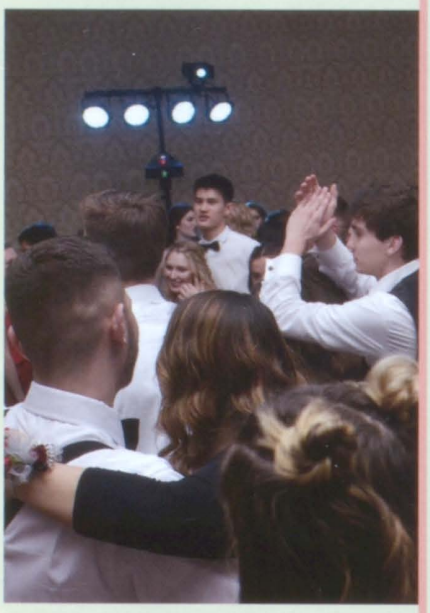
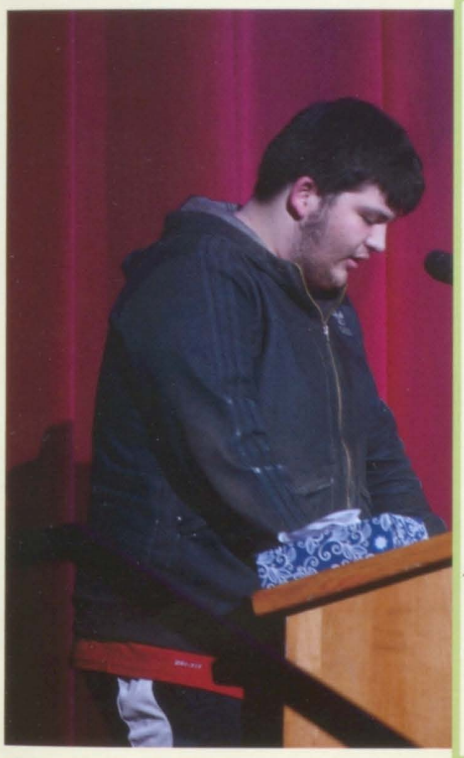
Starry Night In Paris



This year's 2017-2018 prom was held at the Marcus Whitman Hotel on March 3. The theme was "Starry Night in Paris." The decor gave the setting an air of romance and elegance, as would be found on a night in Paris. When the students weren't dancing the night away, they were taking pictures at the photo booth with fun props.

This year's prom royalty were:
King Connor Lemma
Queen Emma Case
Prince Brandon Ponce
Princess Peyton Prudente

Every 15 Minutes



On March 15 and 16, ASB put on the annual program "Every 15 Minutes" in effort to inform students about the consequences of driving while under the influence. Seniors who choose to actively participate in the demonstration dress and act as if they have been killed in a drunk driving accident, and are considered deceased. In the commons, a wrecked car is on display that was the result of a drunk driving crash. Administration hopes that this event will help inform teens of the ramifications of driving drunk, and will therefore encourage them to refrain from doing so.

Boys & Girls Track

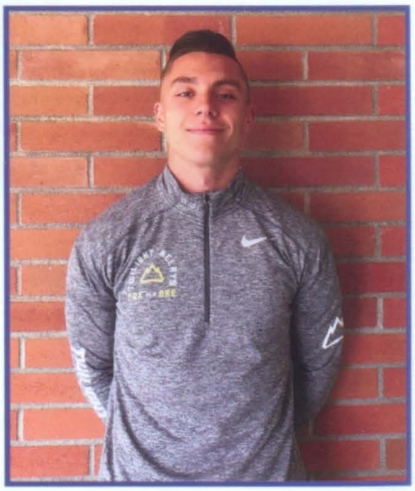
Jerry Cornona

What's your favorite track event and why?
Javelin because it's difficult and you really have to work at it and have a good technique.

Sam Sievertsen



What made you decide to join the Wa-Hi track team?
The sport itself has always been my favorite, but the team, my friends and coaches really drew me in and made me love it.

Abby Snyder

What do you hope to achieve by the end of this current season?
I would like to pass my personal record in my 300 hurdles and also my 200 meter dash.

Karina Rios Cazares

What are your main motivations for doing track?
Because it is my senior year and my goal was to do a sport before I graduated.

Patrick McKibben

What is the most challenging thing about being apart of the WaHi golf team?
Probably maintaining a consistent level of focus throughout the whole round. It's easy to become distracted from such a long day of playing the same sport.

Madison Darnold

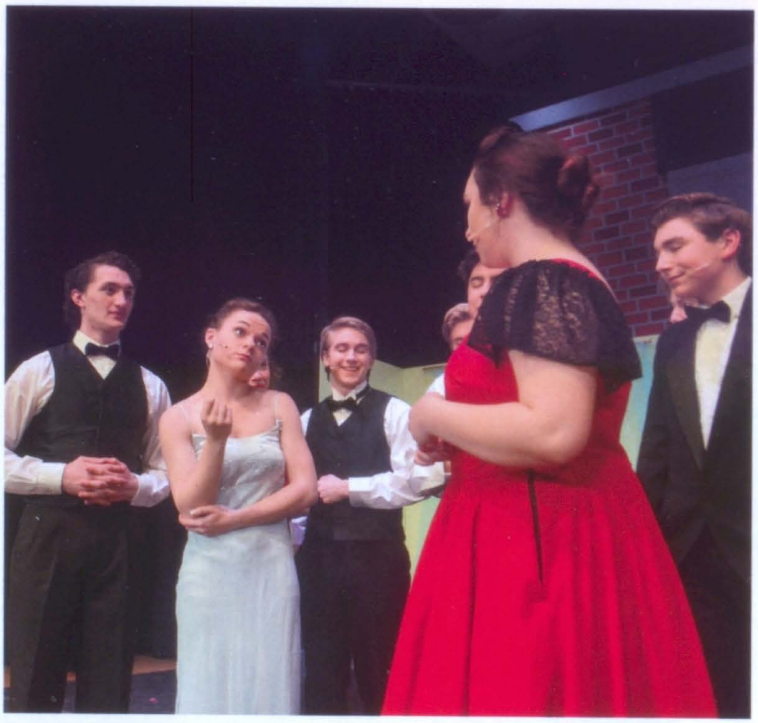
What do you and your teammates do to prepare for a tournament?
Our coach makes us listen to Rocky as we are walking out to our first hole. We all usually just joke around and have fun to ease the tension.

Bells are Ringing

Taylor Kontos — Michelle

Who was your favorite person to work with?
My favorite cast member to work with was probably Andrae Ambalong, my dance partner for the park scene. I really think that we work well together as dance partners because we've been friends since we met in choir last year and we have a mutual goal of putting in 100% into every rehearsal and performance.

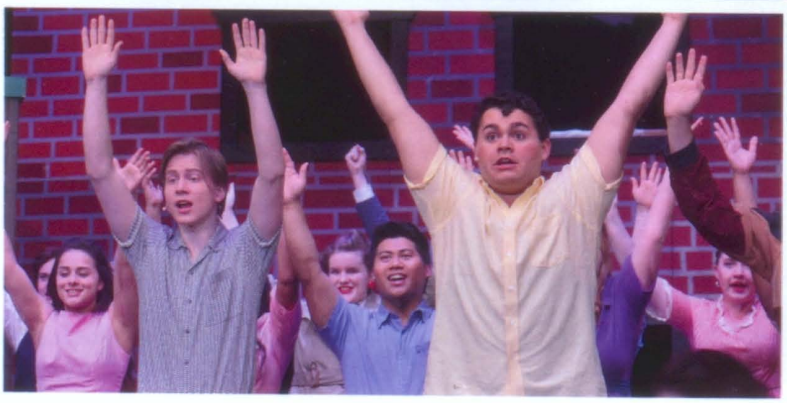
What was the hardest scene for you to do?
The most challenging scene for me was definitely the party in Larry's flat. Having never done any sort of theatre before, it was difficult for me to figure out how to sing, dance, and act all at the same time but after becoming comfortable with it, it easily became my favorite number.

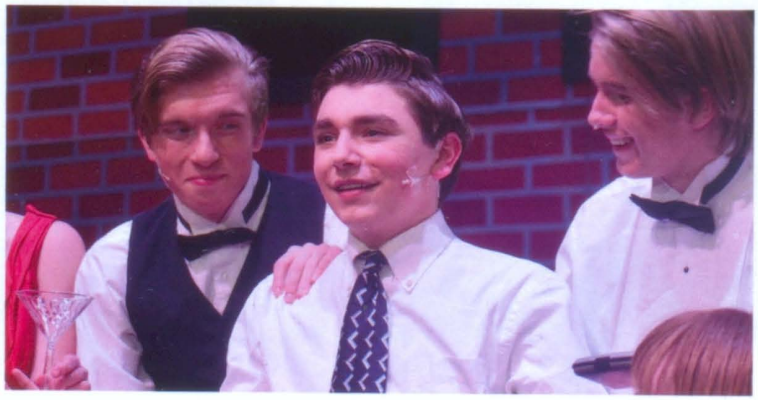


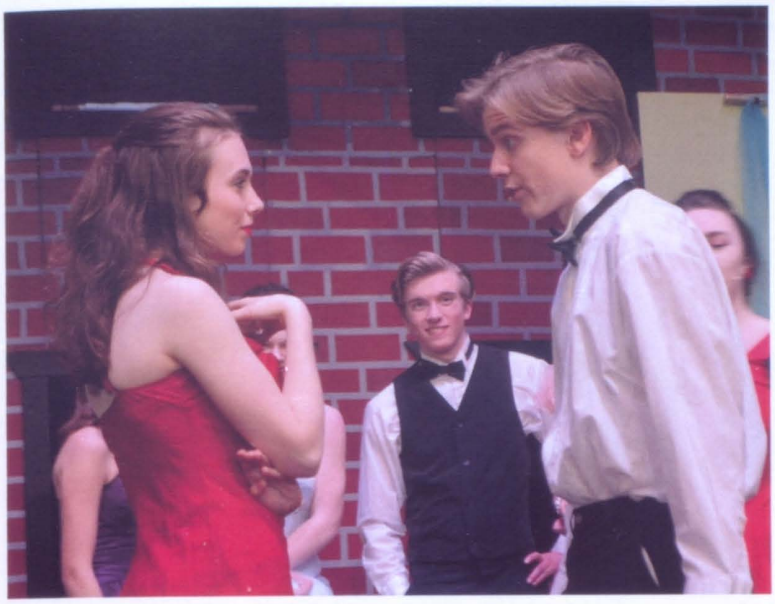
Trevor Kytola — Blake Barton

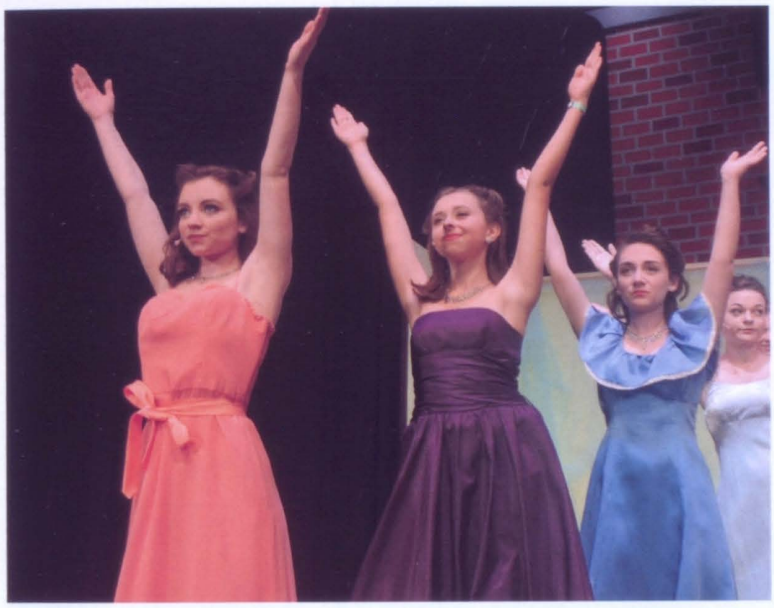
What all did you contribute to the play?
In Bells are Ringing, I am Blake Barton, the Dance captain, and the Jeff Moss understudy. Being dance captain means that I am in charge of all dance rehearsals and workouts when our choreographer isn't here, since she is only able to be here once a week.

How long have you been acting?
My first musical was the summer after 4th grade, where I was lucky enough to be cast in the summer musical, Footloose. I was then in the last three summer musicals after that, and have also been involved in every Wa-Hi production in my time here at Wa-Hi!









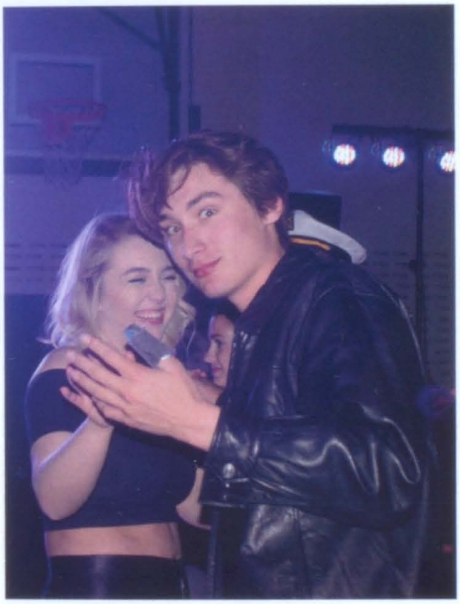
Cinco de Mayo

Why is the Cinco de Mayo party important to you as a WaHi staff member?
Meliton Ramirez: It's a celebration of our culture and we're bringing it into the school. It feels awesome to share part of our cultural with everybody not just the rest of the students.
Refugio Reyes: It's very important because we have a large percentage of our population who are Latinos and I think we need to have more events like Cinco de Mayo.

Wa-Hi's Cinco de Mayo Celebration has been around for many years. Wa-Hi students, parents, and the community come together for this celebration. We share the day not just in the Latino community, but in all of Walla Walla.

Why is the Cinco de Mayo party important to you as a Wa-Hi student?
Kalea Soto: As a student and a member of Latino Club, the Cinco de Mayo Party is important to me because it really represents us as a club, and really we just want to make the student body learn about our culture. Also, it's mainly what we have been working towards the whole year.

Sadies



Wa-Hi's annual Sadie Hawkin's dance is put on by the National Honor Society club. This year's theme was iconic duos over the years. Students had fun dressing up for their red carpet entrance and dancing the night away.

Leaving and Retiring

Vivian Glaeser

Vivian Glaeser started her teaching carrier in Missouri, where she spent 4 years. She then moved to Washington to teach at Wa-Hi and finish out her 17 years of eduacting. She has been apart of many drama productions, sports scoring and announcing, asst. drama director and helped with drama costumes.

What's something you will always remember about Wa-Hi?

"Wa-Hi was just a really great place to work. The math department is fabulous and the people generally just care about eachother, students and staff. I have never had a class that I didn't like. That just tells you that the people of Walla Walla are good people."

Clairy Clizer started out as a career information specialist and is currently a career outreach coordinator for Wa-Hi. She loves helping the students of Wa-Hi. After Wa-Hi she plans on retireing and moving to Medford, Oregon, to be close to her daughter and grandchildren.

What has been the most enjoyable part of your job?

"The great spirit of the students. I love helping them figure out what they want to do with there lives and their future. I also love helping kids figure out a little more about themselves and who they want to be. "

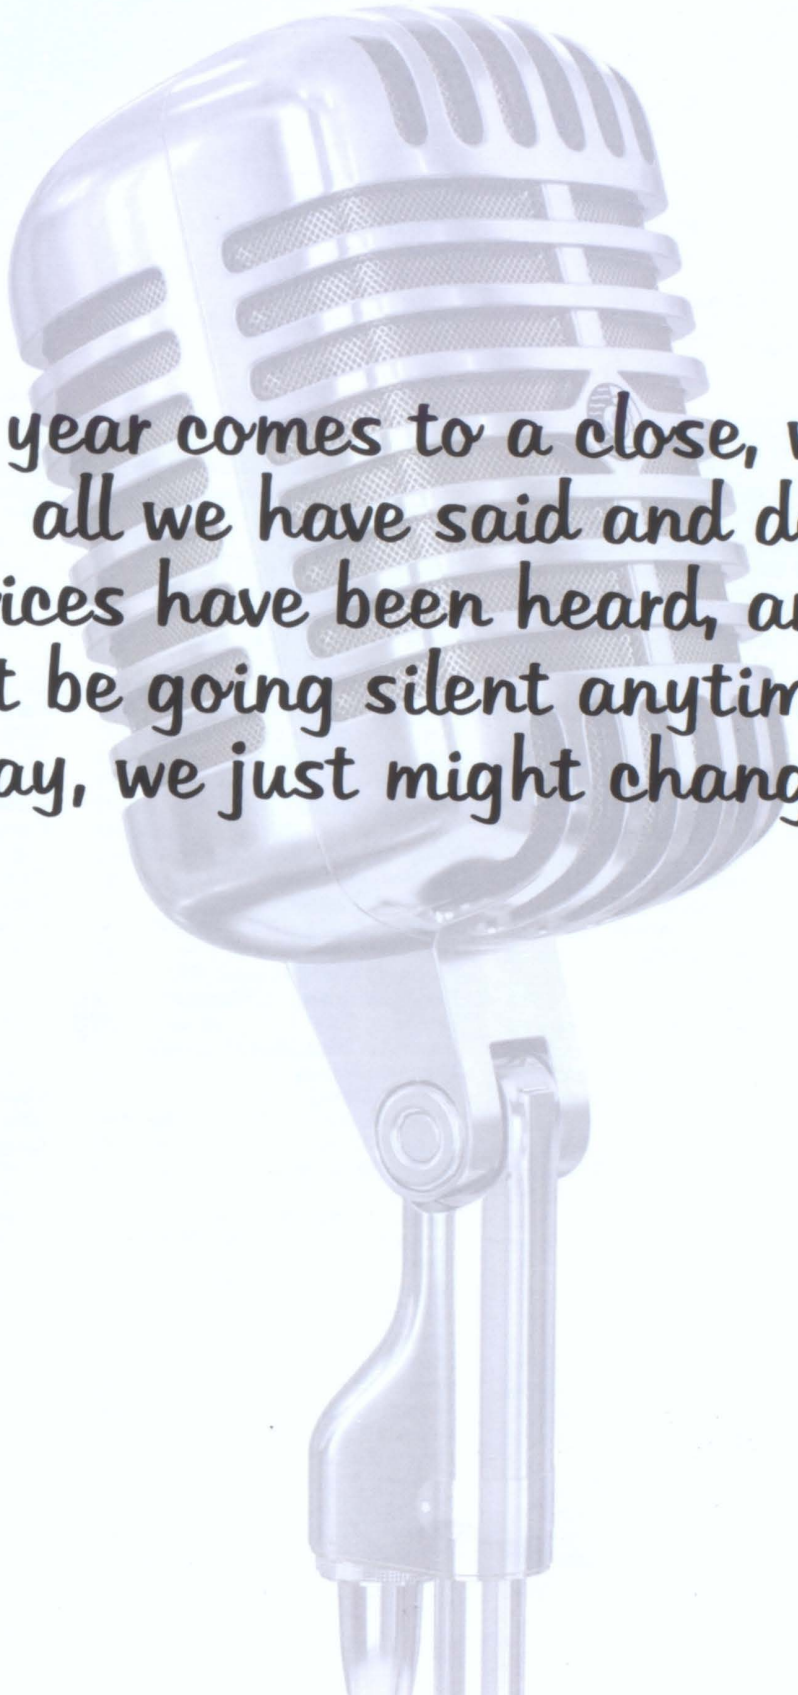
Clairey Clizer

Matt Shaw

Matthew Shaw has been teaching at Wa-Hi for 12 years. He teaches Sophmore English and Junior AP Language. However,in previous years he taught Freshman English, Senior English and Honors Freshman English. During his time here he contributed in the starting of Link Crew and freshman mentoring.

What is your favorite thing about Wa-Hi?

"My favorite thing about Wa-Hi is probably the people I get to work with, the collueges and students I get to work with everyday. I've had the chance to work with a lot of very talented educators who have improved my own teaching practices."



As the year comes to a close, we remember all we have said and done.
Our voices have been heard, and they will not be going silent anytime soon.
Someday, we just might change the world.
